ENJOY CHRISTMAS EXERCISES. Children and Parents Have Merry Time at Park City.

Special to The Tribune. PARK CITY, Dec. 22.-Christmas oxercises were held in the various schools here yesterday, when short programmes were given in the several buildings, followed with Christmas trees.
At the Sisters' school the exercises were alaborate, and a splendid musical were alaborate, and a splendid musical and literary programme was given by the pupils of St. Mary's, Much time had been spent by the Sisters in preparing this programme and the young people certainly did exceptionally well in the rendition of their parts.

The schoolroom was prettily decorated with fancy colored crepe paper, Christinias colors. At the close of the programme "a real Santa Claus" appeared and amused the young pupils and the parents, who had been invited to the exercises.

recless. The Rev. Father Galligan addressed the company and concluded his remarks by wishing all the returns of the season. Following is the programme: Chorus, "Hall, Merry Christmas," school; "Greeting to the Pastor," small girls; song, "Holy Night," school; recltation, Thomas Tallon; song, "When Santa Claus Comes Around," school; recitation, Grace Condon.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Kennedy Company of Salt Lake to Build Septic Tank at Pocatello.

Special to The Tribune.

POCATELLO, Ida., Dec. 22.—In the adjourned council meeting held last night the Kennedy Construction company of Sait Lake was awarded the contract for the construction or the septic tank for the sewer and two laterals. As a matter of fact, the bid made by Heman company of St. Louis was the lowest by a few dollars, but the contract was awarded to the Kennedy company be company of the Kennedy company of cause the Heman bid on rock work was so much more than the estimate made by the engineer that the city would be losing money. The bid of Heman on rock was $4.50 per cubic yard, while that pecial to The Tribune. losing money. The bid of Heman on rock was $4.50 per cubic yard, while that of Kennedy was only $2. Another reason why Kennedy got the contract was because the Heman company is said to be a very slow one and the work done here on some of the other laterals by the Kennedy company has been very satisfactory. The total of the Kennedy bid was $55,044. Work will begin in the spring.

Brady Feels Confident.

Brady Feels Confident.

Special to The Tribune.

FOCATELLO, Ida., Dec. 22.—Governor James H. Brady returned last night from Boise, where he attended a banquet in honor of the governor-elect, John M. Haines. The banquet was given by the retiring governor, James H. Hawley, and ex-governors McConnell, Gooding, Morrison and Brady were present. Governor Brady urged the new governor to cail a constitutional convention to remedy some legal questions. Governor Brady has engaged quarters at the Owyhee hote; in Boise where he will conduct a vigorous campaign for senatorship from Idaho during the coming session of the legislature.

The governor has been all over the state in the past month and feels that

WRANGLE OVER ROAD.

Proposed Changes in Route of Mountain Highway Arouse Objections,

Special to The Tribune.

LOGAN, Dec. 22.—The county commissioners met here yesterday afternoon to hear a petition of residents of the southern part of this county, relative to the establishment of a new roud in Blacksmiths Fork canyon. Because of the construction of the big power plant in that canyon, by the Eccles interests, the road has to be changed above the dam being built, and the power company has placed it, or intends to place it, on the south side of the canyon, where, the petitioners allege, there is danger of snow-slides and falling rock. They destre it to be constructed on the north side of the canyon, and as this road is one of the principal mountain highways of this section there is much public interest in the matter. The commissioners will visit the scene and make a settlement of the question as soon as possible. pecial to The Tribune.

COUNCIL OPENS BIDS.

Pocatello Projects.

Special to The Tribune.

POCATELLO, Ida., Dec. 22.—When the bids were opened last night at the council meeting, it was found that the Kennedy Construction company of Salt Lake was the lowest bidder for the construction of a septic tank for tha city's new sewer system. Its bid was $720. The Lynch-Cannon company of Salt Lake offered a bid of $5568. Other bids were received on the construction of laterals for the sewer in districts 7 and 8, and although the totals have not been officially given out by the city engineer, the totals of the Heman company of St. Louix may be the lowest. The Kennedy company will be a close second. Heman's septic tank bid was $5194. The contract will be awarded at the next council meeting.

Block System on O. S. L.

Special to The Tribune.

ERIGHAM CITY, Dec. 22.—The Oregon Short Line willin a short time will have its entire system protected by a block signal system which the company is new installing. The work or placing the semaphores, one-half-mile spart was completed some time ago. A large company of electricians is now working down from the north, connecting up the semaphores, thereby placing the system in readiness for operation. The electricians are entering Brigham City from the north, and within a day or two will have the work completed to this point. Special to The Tribune.

special to The Tribune.

ERIGHAM CITY, Dec. 27.—Motor car service on the Oregon Short Line between this city and the works of the Ogden Portland Coment company was discontinued last night for an indefinite time, principally for the reason that motor cars are hard to operate in cold weather. The railroad company substituted a mixed train which wil carry the men to and from the coment works. The train crew will also do all the switching and yard work at this point and at Baker's spur.

Sanity Is Questioned.

FOCATELLO, Idaho, Dec. 22.—A commission of physicians consisting of Drs. Fatrie. Mitchel, Simmons and Poole of Blackfoot is holding an investigation at Blackfoot as to the sanity of Carl Machold of this city, who is serving a sentence of six months in the county sail for criminal libel. The case was that of a newspaper man who seemingly hounded a judge of the district court with liberous articles. Machold conducted his own defense in the trial. Machold's actions since the trial have led some to believe that he is mentally unbalanced.
